

Good Times Had By All

1950-1959

Agronomy Club hosts the Agronomy Olympics

1953 • Klaud and Kernel Club joins the Soil Conservation club combined with Tri - K Club to form the UNL Agronomy Club.

1954 • Members serve 450 people of the ASA

1957 • UNL treats K-state Agronomy Club to dinner, tours, and a football game.

1960-1969

Hosted free watermelon feeds to the campus.

1969 • Televised half hour television program:

“Our Profession—Agronomy”

1969 • UNL Hosts the 1st regional Agronomy Club convention April 25th& 26th

NU Agronomy Club Honored With 'Best In Nation' Title

The University Agronomy Club received national acclaim this past week at the 50th annual meeting of the American Society of Agronomy and having an annual tour over a five state area for club members.

About 50 clubs from across the country came her, Robert Siskow of Verilog, was third place in the annual ASA student essay contest.

He has received 100 and admitted to the national contest by local contest winners at 14 universities. ELECTED PRESIDENT The club received an all-

1970-1979

Several Students travel to Columbia and Ecuador to study agriculture.

1970 • Club pocket protectors: “Our profession feeds the world”

1976-1978 • Club is rated #1 in the Nation.

1980-1989

1980 • Club celebrates its 50th anniversary

Pocket Protectors are purchased

1982 • Thomas H. Goodding Learning Center is dedicated to the Department of Agronomy and Horticulture.

1982-1987 • Produced and assembled lab manuals for the Intro to Soils Course.

1990 – 1999

Agronomy Club is active in attending National ASA meeting, Northern & Southern Regional meetings and placed well in several crop contests.

1992 • UNL places 1st and 3rd at the national meeting quiz bowl

2000-2007

Several Agronomy Club members are nominated as National SASES officers.

2005 • Agronomy Club establishes an annual competitive Chili Cook-off.