

University of Illinois Field and Furrow Club

Field and Furrow Club is the agronomy club for the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. It was established in 1935 to help students with an interest in agronomy further their education and make connections with other students with similar interests. Our present club has around 50 members including 12 executive officers.

Philanthropy

- Morrow Plots Clean Up
  - The morrow plots were established in 1876 as the first experimental corn field in America.
- Volunteer at Sola Gratia Community Farm
  - Local farm dedicated to providing fresh produce to those in need.

Social

- Fall Call Out: annual recruitment event
- Christmas Party: dinner and new officer elections
- Barn Dance: celebration of a productive year of Field and Furrow
- Mini Golf: fun social gathering

Fundraising

- Seed Sets: preparing seed sets to sell to Illinois FFA chapters to practice for Agronomy contest
- Mum & Pumpkin Sales: fall fundraising event selling products grown by U of I students
- Agronomy Day: selling refreshments to participants at this annual event

Education

- IPM contest: competition for club members to learn more about integrative pest management
- Speech Contest: winner of contest will compete in National SASES speech contest
- Guest Speakers: representatives from companies come to speak about career opportunities
- Scholarship Banquet: to reward members for outstanding academic achievement and exceptional club membership

Advisor: Wendy White

Presenters: Hannah Donoho
and Gabrielle Johnson