Verification of the Wisconsin Phosphorus Index through in-field Runoff Monitoring
L. Ward Good and L. G. Bundy, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Pots Index Information
The information required for nutrient management planning to calculate the Wisconsin P Index is virtually the same that required for a representative risk-matrix-type index (Weld, 2003). This is:
- Crop
- Tillage
- Soil texture
- Soil test P
- Manure and fertilizer

References: