

PUBLICATIONS SUBSCRIPTIONS

Individual Society Member

Together, the American Society of Agronomy (ASA), Crop Science Society of America (CSSA), and Soil Science Society of America (SSSA) publish thirteen peer-reviewed scientific journals, including six gold open access journals, in support of the agronomy, crop, soil, and environmental science fields. Individual members can subscribe to our journals, books and magazines published in partnership with Wiley and hosted on the Wiley Online Library platform.

Membership with ASA, CSSA, and SSSA brings savings and exclusive subscription options to all society members. Society members can subscribe individually to our online publications or entire publication library at deeply discounted prices and receive reduced rates on publication fees.

For more information, please contact the ASA, CSSA, and SSSA Membership department via email at membership@sciencesocieties.org

Institutional, Corporate & Government

In addition to the thirteen journals published by ASA, CSSA, and SSSA, Wiley offers an exceptional portfolio of over 8 million articles from 1,600 journals, half of which are published in partnership with scholarly and professional societies like ASA, CSSA, and SSSA. Journal titles cover the full spectrum of life, health and physical sciences, social science, and the humanities, and include many titles ranked at the forefront of their field.

The Wiley Online Library provides a platform for the future by giving libraries a greater ability to enhance discoverability, promote institutional branding, and provide seamless access to content - allowing researchers to easily discover and access the journal articles, books, and magazines most relevant to their research.

A range of institutional, corporate, and government subscription and licensing options are offered to institutions and library consortia designed to meet their unique needs.
